DODGEBALL! DODGEBALL! DODGEBALL IN THE FALL! DECA is looking for teams to battle Central in this Fall's Dodge ball tournament. The tournament is Friday, November 13th here in OUR Field House. Another chance for us to beat Central at home!!! If you and your friends are interested in having a team, see Mrs. Grochowski in Room 247 for registration information. Deadline for team registration is November 4th.

Youth Alive: is a group of students just like you that want to learn about their faith and make new friends. We meet every Tuesday at 3:00 in Mrs. Blount's room, 159. Come hang out with us for faith, food, friends, fellowship and fun!

Talent Show: Can you sing, act, juggle, or does your band wish to perform for an adoring crowd? If so, then we are looking for you to perform in the school wide talent show, Chaos & Creation, Part Deux. Auditions will be on November 17th, afterschool, in the auditorium. See Mrs. Fragale if you have any questions.

Junior class advisory..reminder that we are having a bake sale this week Wednesday during the lunch hours and we need baked goods. Please bring them to room 145 Tuesday or Wednesday...

We need those juniors who offered to make items to bring them in or the sale will be cancelled. Also, if you offered to sell during lunch hours, please see Mrs. Gauss sometime Tues or Wed morning.

Students: Please pick up your homecoming pictures in room 147 this week.

Seniors: Graduation orders are due today at lunch in the Commons. Please bring your completed order form AND your deposit. Any questions can be directed to the Attendance Office.

The Drama Department will present Neil Simon's hilarious play, Fools, on Thursday, November 5th & Friday, November 6th at 7: 00 p.m. and on Saturday, November 7th at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the school's Auditorium. The ticket price is $5 and will be sold at the door beginning one hour before each performance.

Veteran's Day is approaching (November 11) and once again we will be having our annual assembly to honor those who have served from our area. We certainly don't want to leave anyone out – so, students and staff: Is there someone you know who might be interested in coming to our breakfast and/or assembly? Do you have a family member (brother, mother, father, grandparent, etc) who served in the military and they are interested in attending? Please ask them and then let Mrs. Tilsner know as soon as possible if they would like to join us on that Wednesday – 2 and ½ weeks from now. Individuals can email or call Mrs. Tilsner to RSVP.

Do you like to talk? Well Wilmot, we have the perfect activity for you. Come and see what forensics is all about! Forensics – aka speech – is starting its season soon and we would love to have you join the team. There are a wide variety of categories that you can enter... radio speaking, oratory, storytelling, play acting, group interpretation, special occasion speaking, moments in history, and prose and poetry ... just scratch the surface of what is available! You can write your own material, act, or read from a script – the possibilities are endless! Our first organizational and inspirational meeting will be next Monday (November 2nd) after school in room 265.

National Honor Society will be hosting our annual Senior Citizen Homecoming on Saturday, November 15 here in the commons. Attached is an invitation – please help us spread the news by sharing it with anyone you know who might be interested (Parents, grandparents, older neighbors...). The event is free for those attending. We have lunch, door prizes, and a live jazz quartet featuring our very own John Sorensen!
