

Wednesday, October 28

Family, Career & Community Leaders of America – There will be a FCCLA meeting at 3:00 p.m. today in room # 198 See you there! ?'s – see Mrs. Labisch or Mrs. Cooper

Key Club week is next week! Keep your ears and eyes open for more info!

Key Club members. Remember we need your help Monday morning around 6:45 AM to prep for Key Club Week. Meet by the North Entrance and/or Mrs. Tilsner's room.

DODGEBALL! DODGEBALL! DODGEBALL IN THE FALL! DECA is looking for teams to battle Central in this Fall's Dodge ball tournament. The tournament is Friday, November 13th here in OUR Field House. Another chance for us to beat Central at home!!! If you and your friends are interested in having a team, see Mrs. Grochowski in Room 247 for registration information. Deadline for team registration is November 4th.

Go Green Club will meet NEXT Wed. Nov. 3rd after school. Please see Ms. MorningCrow THIS week for a permission slip for our next fieldtrip, they will be due the day of the meeting.

Talent Show: Can you sing, act, juggle, or does your band wish to perform for an adoring crowd? If so, then we are looking for you to perform in the school wide talent show, Chaos & Creation, Part Deux. Auditions will be on November 17th, afterschool, in the auditorium. See Mrs. Fragale if you have any questions.

Seniors: Graduation orders are due today at lunch in the Commons. Please bring your completed order form AND your deposit. Any questions can be directed to the Attendance Office.

The Drama Department will present Neil Simon's hilarious play, Fools, on Thursday, November 5th & Friday, November 6th at 7: 00 p.m. and on Saturday, November 7th at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the school's Auditorium. The ticket price is $5 and will be sold at the door beginning one hour before each performance.

Veteran's Day is approaching (November 11) and once again we will be having our annual assembly to honor those who have served from our area. We certainly don't want to leave anyone out – so, students and staff: Is there someone you know who might be interested in coming to our breakfast and/or assembly? Do you have a family member (brother, mother, father, grandparent, etc) who served in the military and they are interested in attending? Please ask them and then let Mrs. Tilsner know as soon as possible if they would like to join us on that Wednesday – 2 and ½ weeks from now. Individuals can email or call Mrs. Tilsner to RSVP.

Do you like to talk? Well Wilmot, we have the perfect activity for you. Come and see what forensics is all about! Forensics – aka speech – is starting its season soon and we would love to have you join the team. There are a wide variety of categories that you can enter... radio speaking, oratory, storytelling, play acting, group interpretation, special occasion speaking, moments in history, and prose and poetry ... just scratch the surface of what is available! You can write your own material, act, or read from a script – the possibilities are endless! Our first organizational and inspirational meeting will be next Monday (November 2nd) after school in room 265.

National Honor Society will be hosting our annual Senior Citizen Homecoming on Saturday, November 15 here in the commons. Attached is an invitation – please help us spread the news by sharing it with anyone you know who might be interested (Parents, grandparents, older neighbors...). The event is free for those attending. We have lunch, door prizes, and a live jazz quartet featuring our very own John Sorensen!

Athletic Information

Attention All Freshmen Football Players: Please remember to turn in your money for the football banquet to Mrs. Kothe by Monday, November 2nd.

The Girls Gymnastics Parent Meeting: Parent and athletes interested in gymnastics must attend the informational meeting on Monday November 2nd 6:00 pm in the library at Burlington High School.

If you have any questions about the program, please see Mrs. Clemens in the Athletic Office.