

Monday, December 21

National Honor Society members – We will NOT be having a meeting tomorrow, Tuesday. However, there is an updated list of completed service hour posted outside of Mrs. Noll's and Mrs. Greil's rooms. Reminder that ALL hours for the 1st semester are due January 22!

There will be a Girl Power meeting after school today in room 231. Any girl who wants to learn more about Science, Technology, Engineering or Math careers please attend. See Mrs. Joch in room 231 or Mrs. Kothe in Student Services if you have questions.

Anyone interested in joining the dance club. There will be a meeting after school today in the dance room. If you cannot attend please see Miss Katie or Mrs. Robinson to get your name on the list.

Attention DECA Competitors! Mrs. Grochowski will be hosting competition study sessions on the following days: today AND Monday, Jan. 4th through Thurs. Jan. 7th . Study sessions will be in Room 247 right after school for all of those interested in getting more information and competition tips for our upcoming district competition. If you have any questions, see Mrs. Grochowski.

Attention all students who took the ASVAB test: Your results are in and on Tuesday you need to attend a very important meeting in computer lab 185. The interpretation of the results will happen during 1st hour. On Monday you will receive a pass for the meeting on Tuesday.