Attention all Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors – Scheduling for next year is closed via Skyward. However, you will meet with your counselor for an individual appointment in February or March to go over your schedule and finalize it. Please note: schedules can only be changed up until May 1st.

FCCLA will meet next Wednesday, February 3rd – 2:50 -in Room #196. See Mrs. Cooper – if you have any questions...

Intramurals: Anyone interested in playing intramural basketball please sign up in Mr. Kaiser's room #220.

Art department is proud to announce the Gold Key award recipient of The Scholastic Art and Writing Awards of 2010 in Visual Arts : Courtney Anderson
Her computer graphics artwork "Rainforest Tunes" will be on display at Milwaukee Art Museum till March 20th. Then her piece will go to New York to compete on the national level. Good luck, Courtney!

The Valentine's "Turn-About Dance" has returned. On Saturday, February 13th in the Commons from 7:00 p.m. -10:30 pm. Girls, ask that special guy to Turnabout. This is one of the best dances of the year. Music will be by Trav-A-Ling Tunes. Tickets go on sale Monday, February 1st during the lunch hours. Tickets are $5.00 per person.

Attention Students: Are you interested in writing for the school paper? Since Journalism has ended, Ms. Carlisle is looking for students who would like to write for the last 3 issues of the paper. If you are interested, come to an informational meeting after school on Monday, February 1st in room 147. Feel free to reply to this e-mail with any questions!

Students 16 years old and older--There are still 40 slots available for blood donation. If you wish to donate, see Ms. Carlisle during lunches or stop in room 147 after school to sign up.

Attention all students: TA, Office Assistant, and Early Release forms are due TODAY! They will not be accepted after 3pm today. Thank you.

Walk for Autism: Any students in NHS, Student Council, or DECA who need “service hours” and want to volunteer tomorrow, Saturday, January 30th at the Autism Run/Walk at Wilmot should see Mrs. Clemens in the office by 1:00 p.m. today.

KEY CLUB members who were interested in DCON need to let Mrs. Tilsner know NOW!!! TODAY!!! Forms must be turned in by Monday and in order to plan ahead, she needs to know if you will be going today!!!

OK – so you’ve gotten your “pants off the ground”, now bring them to the High School! We need your jeans, Wilmot! Bring your jeans in next week early and often! Jeans can be dropped off in Mrs. Tilsner’s room and exchanged for a Pleasant Prairie Aeropostale coupon. We already have over 100 pairs of jeans – yours will help more who are in need. Remember, if we can collect the most – we will win a pizza party! Also – as you are going through your jeans to bring in – if you have other clothing to donate – bring that in too! You won’t get a coupon for anything by jeans, but the Key Club will assure that any other clothing items go to the Sharing Center in Paddock Lake, St. Vincent, Haiti or any other number of deserving and needy groups.

Students that planned to take part in Forensics (speech) – have you been practicing? Sub district is March 2nd and Mrs. Tilsner has not seen many of you. You need to practice with her to be considered part of the team.

Athletic Information

The Co-op girls gymnastics team showed off its talent and depth Thursday night in their victory over Waterford with a season high 141.150 points. Wilmot’s Marlee Brunow won the bars with a 9.000.

The team heads to Madison on Saturday for the state-wide Madison Memorial Invite. Good luck girls!
