

Friday, February 26th

Any student who purchased a Turnabout ticket and did not receive their $5.00 refund, please see Mr. Movrich before school in room 273.

All WUHS academic bowl participants need to have their permission forms signed and turned in to Mrs. Border in the attendance office today!! On Monday we will be meeting in Room 190, that Mrs. Troupis' room, at 2:20 to depart for Elkhorn. You will be receiving your T-shirts at that time.

There will be a team AcaDec meeting next Thursday after school. We will be discussing plans for State, so attendance is very important. If you cannot come, YOU MUST see Frau Plichta before then.

Are you interesting in getting a jump start on your career? The Youth Options program allows you to test out careers in nursing, hospitality, lodging and fire protection. Stop in Student Services to pick up a Youth Options packet today. New this year...there are a limited number of spots in C.N.A. for summer school. See Mrs. Kothe for more information. All Youth Option forms are due today.

March 6th is just around the corner! Wilmot is the place for the regional basketball tournament for Special Olympics! We need volunteers to help throughout the day! IF you need community service hours or just want to volunteer for the fun of it come and sign up!!! For those that have already signed up THANK YOU Special Olympics will be contacting you! For those who haven't yet, go to Mrs. Nolan's room and get a form in room #150 in the foreign language hallway second door down. And remember, you get a cool T-Shirt!!!!

Attention Sophomores and Juniors this news is hot off the press!!! Gateway Technical College is offering a Law Enforcement program for high school students at their Burlington campus starting in the fall. You must fill out Youth Options paperwork by Monday. If you have questions please see Mrs. Kothe in Student Services.

Sgt. Pepper's: Don't be a Renegade, don't get caught in The Middle. Take a Stand, so you aren't Dancing in the Dark. Come and Listen to the Music on Saturday at the Peppers concert.

Student Council members participating in tomorrow's Polar Plunge....you MUST turn in your money and waiver to Ms. Carlisle BEFORE 8th hour today!!

Attention Senior Boys.....are you READY? Mr. Wilmot is Thursday, April 22nd and we need our senior boys to sign up to show off their talents! Please see Mr. Wetzel in room 242, Mrs. Kothe in Student Services or check your school email for an application. Please turn in applications by Tuesday, March 9th.

Staff Sergeant Scott Cook, from the Army National Guard will be at Wilmot High School on Tuesday, March 2 all day. He will be located in Mr. Richter's room (244) during the lunch hour for visits and information regarding the Army.

Next week Wednesday will be a meeting for anyone interested in setting up a team for the Cancer Relay for Life. Get your teams set up this weekend so you can attend and get starting information on fundraising, rules, and all the other good info you need to get ready for a great Relay in June!

Oh – yes – pizza too?!

Listen to announcements for further details – know right now that the meeting is next Wednesday after school here at Wilmot. Let's get things in motion.

Athletic Information & Announcements

Current Freshman volleyball players that are interested in playing in the Antioch League this summer, if you have not contacted Coach Thelen please do so as soon as possible.

Boys Basketball: Next Tuesday, March 2nd our boys travel to Stoughton, WI to participate in the regional game. The game begins at 7:00 p.m. (Directions to Stoughton High School are in the Athletic Office.) See Mrs. Clemens if you have any questions. Go Panthers!!!!

Attention softball players. We need help this Saturday running our "Wiffle" ball tournament. Be here at 8:30 a.m. Players will be keeping score, umpiring and selling concessions. See coach Movrich or coach Dopke.

Gymnastics: BBW (our gymnastics co-op team) advanced last night to the State meet next weekend in Wisconsin Rapids. It was a nail biter to the very end with the team tied with Kenosha going into the last event. The team will be representing our Sectional with the Franklin Combined team. We also are sending 3 individuals to the event as well. Great job girls and good luck next week at State!!

Wrestling Results: Wilmot had one wrestler advance to the semi-finals at the Kohl Center in Madison. Matt Gray, sophomore, will be wrestling at 7:00 p.m. tonight. Congratulations to all the wrestlers for a great tournament performance.
