Student that are competing in the Junior Achievement Business Challenge are reminded to meet in Mr. Wetzel's room right after school today. Again, Travis Robinson, Daniel Mosher, Maggie Houghton, Charlie Kiel, Jake Bixler, and Eric Idler, please meet in Mr. Wetzel's room briefly, right after school today.

Attention creative Key Clubbers going to DCON... want to help out with our costumes? Please plan to meet today at 3:00 in Mrs. Tilsner's room to work on painting our shirts.

National Honor Society members: anyone who can help out on Thursday night during parent conferences, please see Mrs. Noll as soon as possible. We could really use some help!

Students and staff – all this week we'll be selling raffle tickets for the Green Bay football. We can't hand out the ball until all the tickets are gone. Remember, your ticket could be as little as 1 penny. Tickets on sale during lunch this week – help us raise funds for the Cancer Relay for Life.

There will be a Cancer Relay for Life captain's meeting on today after school in the Commons. Please stop in and check us out – Already got a team?... we'll try to help you get registered. Still unsure about the relay?... we'll give you some start up information and get you going! Free pizza too! Join us!

National Honor Society members: anyone who can help out on Thursday night during conferences, please see Mrs. Noll as soon as possible. Also, all members of the door prize committee for the grade school dance will have a meeting after school on Tuesday in Mrs. Noll's room. It will only be 10 minutes but it is very important that you attend!

There will be a team AcaDec meeting Thursday after school. We will be discussing plans for State, so attendance is very important. If you cannot come, YOU MUST see Frau Plichta before then.

March 6th is just around the corner! Wilmot is the place for the regional basketball tournament for Special Olympics! We need volunteers to help throughout the day! IF you need community service hours or just want to volunteer for the fun of it come and sign up!!! For those that have already signed up THANK YOU Special Olympics will be contacting you! For those who haven't yet, go to Mrs. Nolan's room and get a form in room #150 in the foreign language hallway second door down. And remember, you get a cool T-Shirt!!!!

Attention Sophomores and Juniors this news is hot off the press!!! Gateway Technical College is offering a Law Enforcement program for high school students at their Burlington campus starting in the fall. You must fill out Youth Options paperwork by today. If you have questions please see Mrs. Kothe in Student Services.
