

Specific Learning Disability (SLD) Notification for Schools - PI 11.36 (6) (c) 2

The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI), has changed the rule for identifying students with specific learning disabilities (SLD). No later than December 1, 2013, all initial SLD evaluation of public school students will use information from intervention to make eligibility decisions.

Beginning on December 1, 2013, initial SLD evaluations at Wilmot Union High School (WUHS) will begin using information from a student's response to intensive, scientific research based or evidence based interventions when making special education eligibility decisions. If you have questions regarding this information, you may contact the WUHS Special Education Coordinator at 262-862-9003 or via email at watsonjo@wilmoths.k12.wi.us.
