Information Regarding Students of Divorced Parents

1. Consistent with the intent of the district to promote the best interests of each student, it shall be the practice of the district to maintain strict neutrality between parents who are involved in an action affecting the family, unless otherwise directed by a Court Order.
2. Prior to enrollment in WUHS, the divorced parent of students will be requested to submit , for copying purposes, the most recent Court Order dealing with their student.
3. Unless otherwise expressly restricted by a provision of a Court Order, which is on file with the District, the non-custodial parent, upon written request, shall be provided a log-in and password to Skyward, the student database program, in order that he/she may view grades, discipline, attendance, and all school information provided by the program.
4. In the event that neither divorced parent notifies the school of the existence or update of a Court Order action, neither parent shall be deemed to have rights superior to the other with respect to the student.
